THE582 - MAPPING GENDER c.1780-2016

27 February - 3 March 2017 with Professor Sarah Williams

This course traces the core narratives surrounding masculinity, femininity, marriage, sex and the family from the late-eighteenth century through to the present day.

Sarah Williams was Professor in the History of Christianity at Regent College Vancouver from 2005-2016, and previously taught modern British and European history at the University of Oxford.

BUS585 - CHURCH AND NOT-FOR-PROFIT LAW

29 May - 1 June 2017 with Anne Robinson AM, Danielle Mawer, Philip Gerber

Issues covered include reporting requirements, tax treatment of churches and church related not-for-profits, regulations and tax treatments of donations, child protection and OH&S requirements. Don't let ignorance of these issues destroy your ministry.

THE515 - THEOLOGY 24/7: GOD IN EVERYDAY LIFE AND WORK

25-27 September 2017 with Professor Robert Banks

This unit will bring theology to bear upon the realities and challenges of everyday living - especially those connected with work and leisure. Robert Banks taught at Macquarie and Australian National Universities; Professor of the Ministry of the Laity at Fuller Theological Seminary, and then inaugural Director of the Macquarie Christian Studies Institute, Macquarie University.
