

Do Ministry & Business belong together?

Sure they do.

A new opportunity we are offering to ministry/theology/divinity graduates of Alphacrucis College and other accredited theological colleges is to complete the Alphacrucis Bachelor of Business as an add-on to their previous studies. You will gain credit for your previous studies and may be able to complete a full degree as an add-on in two years of study. It can be completed full-time or part-time, on-campus or on-line.

WHY ADD A BUSINESS DEGREE?

As a priest or minister the proclaiming the gospel in word and deed is your calling, but practical skills leadership and business can enhance the effectiveness of your ministry. For those ministering in not-for-profit organisation, schools, hospitals or in the marketplace the need for business skills is even greater.

With an Alphacrucis Bachelor of Business

- you will be able to better manage buildings and other capital projects
- you will be able to better motivate and manage your staff and volunteers
- you will better understand your legal obligations, in a complex and rapidly changing legal environment
- your organisation will be less exposed to fraud and other governance failures
- your greater understanding of business will strengthen your ministry in that world
- most important of all you will be able to bring a thoughtful Christian perspective to all these business issues.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

Your ministry studies give you credit for up to half of our Bachelor of Business, leaving you to complete the remaining six core subjects, six subjects of a major, plus a supervised professional experience subject.

The core subjects are:

- ACC101 Accounting for Decision Making
- BUS101 Business Law
- BUS201 Business Statistics
- BUS102 Economics
- LEA201 Leadership Principles
- MAN101 Introduction to Management

You can then add a major in Leadership and Management, or Accounting (Fully accredited by the professional bodies CPA/CA) and a variety of electives.

FEE-HELP is available to eligible students.
