*This course is currently available for part-time study only.

The Graduate Certificate in Professional Supervision has been designed to produce graduates who embody integrity, professional knowledge and social skills, making a positive contribution to society in the unique discipline of counselling supervision.

The course draws on Alphacrucis University College’s expertise in social science and record of educating successful community service practitioners across a range of contexts. The course introduces students to a broad range of counselling technical and theoretical concepts from a Christian worldview. Graduates will be equipped with writing and research skills to prepare them for further study and will be able to demonstrate an ability to apply a body of knowledge related to counselling to a range of contexts. Graduates will also have introductory skills in critical thinking, problem-solving, teamwork, and communication at a postgraduate level.

This course also allows flexibility for students who may wish to start with a short postgraduate course before committing to a Masters program or for students who need to exit the Masters program earlier than intended, due to unforeseen personal or professional reasons.

Mandatory Supervision, Group, and Face-to-Face Requirements
Students will be required to undertake 39 hours of face-to-face group supervision as part of SSC519 Professional Accountability, and 10 hours of professional placement as a supervisor-in training under supervision as part of SSC560 Supervision of People Helpers. Additionally, components of this course are delivered in a group learning contexts.
AC GRADUATE ATTRIBUTES

Christian Worldview
A knowledge of the Christian story, derived from the Scriptures and tradition of the church. An awareness of the implications of this story for self-identity in the context of local and global communities. This includes a commitment to engage with alternate worldviews, showing appreciation of the values and perspectives of others.

Leadership
The ability to provide effective Christian leadership to individuals, groups and organisations, demonstrated in the capacity to influence and enable others to accomplish worthwhile objectives which contribute to the human good and the kingdom of God. This includes seeking to emulate the example of Jesus Christ in serving and empowering others.

Integrity and Justice
The ability to apply a Christian worldview in the diverse situations and responsibilities of life, and to exercise faith, hope, love and generosity as prevailing attitudes. This includes the active promotion of the gospel, social justice, equality, mutual respect and an ecological ethos.

Communications
The ability to communicate effectively to a range of audiences, in appropriate contexts using high levels of verbal, written and technological skills. This includes visual and media literacy, numeracy, rhetoric and persuasion.

Personal and Social Skills
Demonstrate relational skills that incorporate the flexibility for both independent and collaborative situations. This includes personal and group organizational skills, conflict management and resolution, as well as the ability to value and respect the opinions of others.

Critical and Creative Thinking
A capacity for critical and reflective thinking that is explored not only individually but within a community context. This includes a capacity to be creative and to research, analyse and resolve problems in innovative and prophetic ways.

Professional Knowledge
Use and maintain knowledge about a discipline or field, in terms of theoretical, conceptual and methodological elements, striving continually and independently to secure further knowledge and where appropriate, defined professional skills.

Graduate Pathways
Students who have successfully completed this course may progress into one of AC’s Master’s degrees, such as the Master of Counselling. Graduates are advised to contact the Future Students Team for information on eligibility requirements for further study.

Career Opportunities
Graduates may find employment as professional supervisors or in a range of professional and educational contexts, not-for-profit and mission-focused organisations, community service-orientated positions, and positions that require research skills and critical thinking.

Work-Integrated Learning
Work-Integrated Learning must be undertaken the college co-ordinated School Professional Placements. These subjects seek to create a direct linkage between the learning, skills and values engaged in lectures, and the reflection which occurs when these are applied in real-life settings. These work-based training subjects comprise of mentoring and academic assessment in a workplace.

To qualify for the award of the Graduate Certificate in Professional Supervision, a candidate will complete 10 hours of supervisor client contact in SSC560 Supervision of People Helpers. Students are usually required to find their own workplace/employer/mentor to be approved by AC. In some cases, a new aspect within a student’s current paid employment may be suitable as a work placement.

For further information related to Work-Integrated Learning please see the Professional Practice Handbook on Moodle or contact our Student Support team.
ADMISSION CRITERIA

Academic Entry Requirements

Applicants with Recent Secondary Education
This course of study requires the completion of an AQF Level 7 or above higher education qualification by an authorised institution. Applicants with recent high school education only are not eligible for direct entry into this course.

Applicants with Vocational Education and Training Study
This course of study requires the completion of an AQF Level 7 or above higher education qualification by an authorised institution. Applicants with a Vocational Education and Training (VET) qualification only are not eligible for direct entry into this course.

Applicants with Higher Education Study
Applicants whose highest level of study enrolment since leaving secondary education is a complete or partially complete higher education qualification must demonstrate the completion of an AQF Level 7 bachelor degree (or higher) in any discipline.

Applicants with Work and Life Experience
Applicants seeking entry into this course may be eligible for Provisional Entry where they can demonstrate a minimum of five years’ relevant work experience in a managerial or professional leadership role. This may include:

- Managers and leaders in non-government organisations which act to further social or cultural outworking of Christian ministry; or

Applicants must submit a copy of their CV with a cover letter outlining how they meet the above criteria, or equivalent.

For further information about AC’s provisional entry criteria, please see:

- AC’s Admissions Requirements
- Higher Education Provisional Entry Policy
- Admissions Policy
English Language Proficiency
If English is not the applicant’s first language or if their first degree was awarded in a non-English speaking nation, they will be required to show proficiency in the International English Language Testing System (IELTS) (or equivalent). Such students admitted into our programs must attain an overall IELTS (or equivalent) score of 7.5 (with no score below 7 in any of the four skills areas, and a score of no less than 8 in speaking and listening), either on entry to or on graduation from the program. For full details of the policy on the ‘English Language Proficiency for Teachers see the NESA - English Language Proficiency Policy.

Applicants are encouraged to contact the International Student Office if they are unsure of the equivalence of their English language proficiency test scores.

Special Admissions Pathways
AC’s Admissions Policy details the special admission pathways for our courses of study. The Special Admission Pathways are evaluated on a case-by-case basis by the Program Director. A student’s admission requirements may be reconsidered on educational disadvantage grounds.

For a full list of educational disadvantage grounds, please see AC’s Admissions Policy.

Essential Requirements
Pre-Admission Interview
The Program Director may conduct a pre-admission interview (either face-to-face or phone or via Zoom) with all academically eligible applicants. This interview aims to assess the key capabilities associated with professional supervision.

Computer literacy and internet access
AC students require access to computer and internet facilities, as written assignments are submitted online in typescript with some assignments requiring database and internet research.

Statement of Intention
All applicants must submit a Statement of Intention as part of their application for admission into this course. This should include the email and phone contact details for at least one professional referee.

Working with Children Check
AC students are required to complete the Working with Children Check online. You are classified a ‘volunteer.’ Submit application online and also print a copy and upload as an attachment to your application.
DIVERSITY AND EQUITY

AC is committed to providing a learning environment that is free from discrimination on the basis of income, age, disability, social and ethnic background, location or gender. AC endeavours to increase opportunities for people of all backgrounds to participate in training programs, and implement programs that take into account the specific needs of participants. AC encourages students to inform AC of any disability, medical condition or learning need that may impact on your studies to arrange a study plan that best suits your needs.

HOW TO APPLY

Applications typically close three weeks before semester commences.

All AC application forms are completed online. There are different forms depending on the level of study you are applying for and the location of your course.

Further information on How to Apply and access to AC’s Application Forms is available on our website.

Credit transfers and recognised prior learning (RPL)

You may be entitled to credit for prior learning, whether formal or informal. Formal learning can include previous study in higher education, vocational education, or adult and community education. Informal learning can include on the job learning or various kinds of work and life experience. Credit can reduce the amount of study needed to complete a degree.

For further information about credit and recognition of prior learning please see AC’s Credit Transfer and Recognition of Prior Learning Policy or contact our Student Support team.

HOW TO ENROL

Once you have returned a signed copy of your Letter of Offer to accept your place at AC, you will be invited to enrol in your specific subjects in the next academic period. Students are required to consult their timetable (can be found here), review their Academic Advice Sheet and contact the Program Director (Secondary) for tailored academic advice before completing the enrolment form.

Applications for credit transfers or recognised prior learning will be communicated to you once they have been processed.
